

THE RIGHT GRADE FOR THE RIGHT SURFACE

STEELWOOL
FINE 0000 · 000 · 00	MEDIUM 0 · 1 · 2	COARSE 3 · 4 · 5
WOOD
Grade 0000: Polishing waxed wood. Smooth matt finish for highly polished wooden surfaces. Removal of water stains on waxed wood. 	Grade 1: Sanding and polishing wood surfaces after priming and before applying first coat of paint. 	Grade 3: Sanding of primed wood, highlighting the natural structure of the surface. Grade 5: Removal of stain residue on wooden surfaces after stripping.
PAINT
Grade 000: For intermediate sanding on varnish or shellac. 	Grade 1: In combination with varnish remover, removal of old varnish from antiques. 	Grade 5: Roughens surface of old paint before applying new paint.
METAL
Grade 000: Gives a bright shine to items made of copper or brass. 	Grade 0: Removal of oxidation on copper, polishing copper pipes and fittings before soldering. 	Grade 4: Removal of rust film, oil, lime and water scale.
CLEANING
Grade 00: Grease and soot removal from plastic blinds and aluminium window frames. 	Grade 0: Complete removal of dirt and footprints from linoleum and rubber floors. Grade 2: Removal of wax and dirt residue on wooden surfaces. Cleaning floor and wall tiles as well as plastic tiles. 	Grade 4: Removal of persistent dirt from corners and angles. Grade 5: Reliable cleaning of glass bricks and tiles without scratching. 